Food Sales and Fundraisers

Taking money from poor college students is no challenge for Jessica Pickles of LU.

Food Sales have now taken a mind of their own, Thanks to Latinas Unidas.

How clever Pie - Pi. Get it !

Did you say dessert at 1pm? Sounds like a great idea. I'll have a slice of cheese cake and pan dulce, thanks LU.

from friendly faces.

AACW knows that food is the number one best fundraiser on-campus.

WCM wasted no time on the first days of spring the smell of fresh strawberries filled the air.

Spam Musubi sounds good, sushi with a Hawaiian twist.

Even teachers such as Prof. Alb Hanahti support clubs and orgs by buying the goods.

CHALON orientation

O-Leaders take the stage. These O-Leaders consisted mostly of sophomores and juniors who worked hard to introduce Mount St. Mary's College to its newest students.

Wait and watch. These first-years wait until their next event. Orientation was full of activities and social to acquaint the freshmen to their new school.

Freshman Class of 2003-2004

Aloha! This dance group brought a taste of Hawaii to MSMC.

Flowers... for me? Elson Kris Suico gets leied as Jeuz Alcazar awaits his turn. Students were made to feel welcome since day one.

And So it Begins... The freshman class takes a breather by posing for a group shot.

Calling all 4's! Sophomore Stephanie Leiva holds up a sign to gather the members of her group for an activity.

Mmmm... food! Nicole Navarrete and April Lim are served dinner by O-Leader Brenda Lopez. Their afternoon consisted of Hawaiian food and entertainment.

Oh the Places You'll Go!

"I liked meeting new people and talking to the teachers."

- Michelle Nunag

"It was nice meeting the friends I have now."

- Nicolas Dio

"I learned my way around the school with all the activities the O-Leaders had for us."

- Felice Amisola

A flowery audience. Freshmen Cindy Pena, Melonee Sanchez, Michelle Vallega, and Nina Besin watch intently as the dancers do their hula.

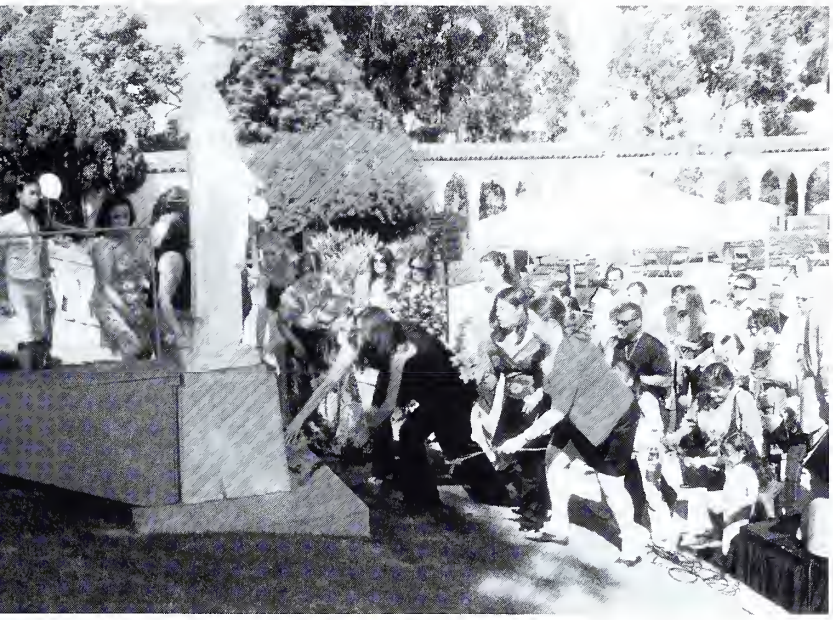
Mary's Day

Mary's Day is the Baccalaureate Program's award ceremony. This is a joyous celebration that honors Mary, the Mother of Jesus. Students are recognized for their academic excellence. Students receiving the President's Awards are also recognized during Mary's Days. Outstanding graduating seniors receive these awards based on scholarship, leadership and community.



Laurel Day

Laurel Day is the Associate in Arts Award Ceremony at the Doheny Campus. This day honors the AA graduates and recognizes their achievements in academics as well as service and leadership. Laurel Day started in 1974 and is modeled on the Greek custom of presenting victors with Laurel wreaths.

MOUNT ST. MARY'S COLLEGE

Office of the President

Dear Graduates of 2004,

Congratulations class of 2004! You have made history at the Mount as the class who began at the turn of a new century! Joy and pride fill our hearts as you complete your Mount journey and leaf through the memories documented in this book. We are so very proud of each one of you and the accomplishment that this milestone represents in your lives. A college education is a significant accomplishment and an enduring investment. All of us who have shared your experience celebrate your success with great pride!

As you look back on your college years, take a moment now and then to thank those who have supported you along the way: your families, your friends, your professors, and others who have encouraged you. As you move into your new ventures, you take far more than a diploma. You take all your God-given gifts and values that will guide your professional and personal lives.

It has been a great joy for me personally to share your educational journey. I cherish each one of you and hope that you will stay close to Mount St. Mary's College as distinguished alumnae. May God bless you abundantly.

With my warmest best wishes and congratulations,

Jacqueline Powers Doud

Best friends Sandra Fisher and Manibel Baez share one last happy moment.

Elaine Ebilane, Monica Lovato and Grace Avila at the Pi Theta Mu installation dinner on April of 2003.

Where will they go from here?

Pictured to the left are Sandra and Maria Rodriquez all decked out with the new fashion in sunglasses. Are you thinking about getting a pair?

THE YEARBOOK CAN'T ALWAYS CAPTURE YOUR FAVORITE AND MOST PRECIOUS MOMENTS SO WE ARE LEAVING THAT UP TO YOU!

DEDICATION PAGES

Congratulations Cindy -

I am so proud of your achievement and the goals that you have set ahead of yourself. I'm very happy for you up to this point in your life, and I am sure the best is yet to come. You mean the world to me.

There are places I'll remember
All my life though some have changed
Some forever not for better
Some have gone and some remain
All these places have their moments
With lovers and friends I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living
In my life I've loved them all.
But of all these friends and lovers
There is no one compares with you
And these mem'ries lose their meaning
When I think of love as something new
Though I know I'll never lose affection
For people and things that went before
I know I'll often stop and think about them
In my life I love you more

Vanessa "Butterfly,"

Congratulations GRADUATE! We are extremely proud of yet another great accomplishment on your part. From your graduation from Kinder, helping your Dad win his first Championship in Youth Basketball, graduating from high school to winning first prize in a singing TV show to earning your Bachelor's Degree in minimal time, you continue to fill our lives with tremendous pride and satisfaction to see you continue to achieve at the highest levels of society. As you make history in becoming the first in our family to graduate from college, we are confident that you will continue to seek and excel at all the challenges that your bright future has in store for you. As you prepare yourself to take yet another bold step into your future and take on new challenges, do not forget that you will be successful no matter how difficult the endeavor. You are a proven winner, a true champion and you must never settle for anything less than the highest degree of excellence. And do not ever forget, if things ever get real tough...just tell everyone that "your Daddy was in the Air Force!"

Love you always, Mom & Dad

Sigma Beta Delta

Honors Business Society

The purposes of Sigma Beta Delta are to encourage and recognize scholarship and achievement among students of business, management and administration, and to encourage and promote personal and professional improvement and a life distinguished by honorable service to humankind.

Dr. Doud, President of Mount St. Mary's College, is among a select few of our facuty and staff honorary members.

Membership in Sigma Beta Delta is the highest national recognition a business student can receive at a college or university with a Sigma Beta Delta chapter. To be eligible for membership, a business student must rank in the upper 20 percent of the junior, senior or master's class and be invited to membership by the faculty officers.

Our thanks to the dedicated members of Sigma Beta Delta, and to Dr. Leese our faculty advisor.
